

HOME ECONOMICS

NOTE: This subject area is a new addition to the catalogue and the programme list will be added to in the coming years.

CROP TO SHOP (TV)

BBC1 60mins age: 14-18 2010

Jimmy Doherty explores the global food statistics that enable supermarkets to stock and sell fresh goods from around the world, all year round.

TV 10810 Jimmy's supermarket secrets

DISPATCHES: DO YOU KNOW WHAT'S IN YOUR BREAKFAST (TV)

CH4 60mins age: 14-18 2009

Journalist Jane Moore investigates the nutritional value of foods.

TV 10817 1 programme

DISPATCHES: SANDWICHES UNWRAPPED (TV)

CH4 60 mins age: general output

Alex Thompson investigates the British sandwich industry.

TV 10646 1 programme

DISPATCHES: THE TRUTH ABOUT YOUR FOOD (TV)

CH4 60 mins age: general output

In a move away from fast foods consumers in Britain are turning to premium ready meals and foods that claim to be healthier. However are consumers being told the truth about the food they eat?

TV 10644 Part 1

TV 10645 Part 2

ECONOMY GASTRONOMY (TV)

BBC2 60mins age: 14-18 2009

How to slash food bills but still eat well.

TV 10824A Convenience foods

TV 10824D Students budget

TV 10824B Economy plan

TV 10824E Being frugal

TV 10824C Reducing waste

TV 10824F Feeding a toddler

EVER WONDERED ABOUT FOOD? (TV)

BBC1 30mins age: general

Chef Paul Merrell investigates the properties of various foods.

TV 10389 Chillies and peppers

TV 10392 The banana

TV 10390 Honey and marinated pork

TV 10393 Milk

TV 10391 The history of tea

FOOD STUFF (TV)

BBC2 20mins age: 11-18 2010

Short films looking at contemporary food issues through a number of individual stories.

TT 0179 Black pudding, soft fruit & culture

TT 0193 Seasonality, jam and export

HORIZON (TV)

BBC2 60mins age: general output 2009

David Baddiel looks at the latest research on how parents can best educate their children

TV 10732 Who do you want your child to be?

JIMMY DOHERTY'S FARMING HEROES (TV)

BBC2 2008 age: 14-18 2008

Charismatic Jimmy meets some of the farmers who produce our food and sees how they go about it. Educational food for thought.

TV 10864A East of England

TV 10864D Northern Ireland

TV 10864B Wales

TV 10864E Scotland

TV 10864C North of England

TV 10864F West of England

JIMMY DOHERTY'S FOOD FACTORY (TV)

BBC1 30mins age: 14-18 2009

Jimmy Doherty investigates the contents of supermarket food and looks at how mass-produced foods are made.

TV 10865A Breakfast

TV 10865D Preserving

TV 10865B What's in my sandwich

TV 10865E Snack food

TV 10865C From the fridge

TV 10865F Who's fooling with our food?

MAKING SENSE OF HEALTH (TV)

BBC2 20 mins age: 11-14

Examines how nutrition and exercise affects one's health.

TP 0246 Teeth and eating (15 mins)

TP 0278 Human Machine (20 mins)

TAKE AWAY MY TAKEAWAY (TV)

CH4 25mins age: 11-19 2008

A 10-part series in which teenagers are taken to the country where their favourite takeaway originates.

TR 0196 Pizza fanatics

TR 0230 Texas and hamburgers

TR 0204 Doner kebab

TR 0238 Fish and chips in Iceland

TR 0212 Indian food

TR 0246 Fishing for squid

TR 0216 Curry in Kerala

TR 0250 Industrial farm

TR 0226 China

TR 0258 Favourite moments

TONIGHT: POISON ON YOUR PLATE (TV)

ITV 30mins age: general output 24.9.07

A look at a deadly new superbug linked to the food we eat.

TV 10643 1 programme

THE TRUE COST OF CHEAP FOOD (TV)

CH4 60mins age: general output 2009

Jay Rayner examines why low cost means low quality and uncovers some of the tricks used by retailers to make cheap products look more attractive.

TV 10733 1 programme

WONDERLAND (TV)

BBC2 40mins age: 14-18 2009

Ted's wife Hilda doesn't know who she is anymore. However she remembers various tunes. This film highlights the ability of music to trigger memory.

TV 10961 Alzheimer's: the musical