Summary of Equal Opportunities Policy

It is the policy of the Southern Education & Library Board that all eligible persons will have equal opportunity for employment and advancement in the Board, irrespective of their religion, political opinion, sex, disability or race.

Selection for employment and advancement will be on the basis of ability, qualifications and aptitude to carry out the duties of the post.

In order to fulfil its legal responsibilities under the Fair Employment and Treatment (NI) Order 1998 and to ensure that its Equal Opportunities Policy is effectively implemented, the Board is monitoring the community background of job applicants. To determine your community background we are asking you to indicate to which community you belong. If you do not complete this question the Board is obliged, in accordance with the Fair Employment Code of Practice, to use the Residuary method, which means that a determination will be made on the basis of personal information on your application form.

As an Equal Opportunity Employer, the Board is also monitoring applicants in relation to sex, marital status, disability and race. Monitoring involves an analysis of the recruitment and career progression of applicants, which the Board subsequently uses to assess the effectiveness of this policy.

Access to this information will be strictly controlled and will not be available to those considering your application for employment. Monitoring will involve the use of statistical summaries of information in which the identities of individuals will not appear. The information will not be available for any purpose other than Equal Opportunities Monitoring. While the Board will seek to maintain the confidentiality of all documents relating to appointments, disclosure of documentation may be required under the provisions of the equality legislation applicable to Northern Ireland.

It should be noted that it is an offence, under the Fair Employment and Treatment (NI) Order 1998, to give false information to an employer who is seeking information from job applicants.
